In this last list of Counties, we have in every instance given the highest figures claimed by the Democrats. That these will be materially changed is very certain.

We compare below the estimates of The Age (Democratic) and The Press (Union) in Counties where these papers differ:

THE AGE.—THE PRESS.

Union..... 15,578 11,165 10,007

Union majority, according to The Age, 1,373.

Union majority, according to The Press, 1,504.

RECAPITULATION.

1863.—1864.

Official..... 111,044 111,389 105,654 108,740

Official report..... 15,578 9,628 11,165 10,007

Unofficial..... 19,773 9,789 13,128 12,690

Aggregate..... 146,363 130,796 130,567 120,255

Union majority in '63, 3,920; Union majority in '64, 1,304.

Now, if we compare these according to The Age and The Press, the result is as follows:

THE AGE.—THE PRESS.

Union..... 130,567 Union..... 130,018

Democrat..... 131,192 Democrat..... 129,444

Dem. majority..... 715 Union majority..... 2,568

There cannot be a reasonable doubt that there is at least 1,500 Union majority on the home vote. The soldiers will carry this up to nearly 20,000.

Correspondence of the N. Y. Tribune.

WELLSBORO, Tioga Co., Pa., Thursday, Oct. 13, 1864.

The majority for S. F. Wilson (Union) for Congress is 2,145—one town to bear from which it is impossible to give any aggregate of the soldiers' vote.

From the Mohawk Valley.

Special Dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune.

HERKIMER, Saturday, Oct. 15, 1864.

Herkimer is all ablaze with Lincoln enthusiasm.

The whole County is here by thousands. No such demonstration was before seen in this vicinity, beating the famous Fremont demonstration. Messrs. JAQUES, BARKER, BRUCE and TREMAIN are speaking. Put Herkimer down for immense Union gains.

Amenities.

Artemus Ward's long-expected and carefully-prepared entertainment will be inaugurated this evening at Dodworth's Hall. It is his purpose to narrate the most attractive details of his recent journey through the Mormon country, and to supply appropriate illustrations by a series of panoramic pictures representing the principal scenes of that remarkable region. From the lecturer's reputation it is naturally expected that the entertainment will be mainly of a humorous character; but we believe that it will also aim to afford a considerable amount of information concerning the habits and condition of the Mormons which has not before been given to the public. We have no doubt that Artemus Ward's Evening will rival in interest those of any other place of amusement in the city.

Robert Heller's programme, at 585 Broadway, is varied this week by the introduction of new feasts of eggerman, and the restoration of Mr. Heller's fantay on "The Last Rose of Summer" to the musical part of the entertainment. The special attraction for to-night will be the exhibition of a trick similar to those which are in vogue at the most imposing of the so-called spiritual manifestations, and to which our popular mesmerists invite the particular attention of the believers in modern witchcraft.

At Wallack's Theater "Compact" will be repeated every evening for the present. At the Winter Garden the last nights of the "Comedy of Errors" and "Love in Liver" are announced. At Barnum's the "Tom Thumb Combination Company" remain only during this week. They appear three times every day. The play of "Paul's Return" will constitute the dramatic entertainment until further notice. "Martin Chuzzlewit" continues attractive at the Olympic Theatre. At the Hippodrome, a new bill is offered. New ballets and pantomimes are announced, in one of which Marietta Zaffretta is to appear on horseback. Young Nico, the trapéz performer, and Eaton Stone, the famous equestrian, appear every evening.

At Wallack's "Compact" will be repeated every evening for the present.
